Good of the Club

At tonight's meeting Kathy Uhler from Pocono Wildlife Rehabilitation and Education Center is present and she accepted a check for $500.00. She gave us a presentation about the program and also brought some wildlife friends for us to meet and see up close. They do a great job of caring for the many animals in the rescue and are very grateful for the community support. We hope to visit them at an open house this year in June.

Here is a wellness update on the following members.

Steve Jurczyk has had some more reconstructive surgery in the hospital and is doing well.

Vern Golini continues to do well with his new chemo-therapy.

Ken Greidanus is recovering from gallbladder surgery and doing well.

Frank Jongema is also recovering from surgery and doing well.

Jack Williams wife Kim had some unexpected surgery also, she is recovering and doing well. We will continue to support these members with prayers and keeping them in our thoughts as the make positive progress with recent health issues.

Cruise Committee

Tom Warrelmann will be organizing a committee meeting sometime in early April. He will be making a map of the Cruise location so members will know the placement of cones, DJ's area and table entrance. There will also be a list of jobs necessary to run the cruise with relief for those working. He also needs help to move the trailer to the cruises, please see him if you can help.

50th Anniversary

Brad Orey has touched base with the design people at the college to help create a logo for our 50th Anniversary. We need to think about how we want to celebrate this awesome event, if you have any suggestion please let the members know.

Old and New Business

The Center for Animal Health and Welfare shared some information with us about one of the puppies, Petree will be on the Puppy Bowl on Animal Planet, Super Bowl Sunday. Dan Roman, a long time member of the Board at the Center has passed away, a motion was made by Brad Lodics and second by Len Feinberg to make a $200.00 donation in his memory to the Center. A vote was taken and the motion passed.

There was a motion made by Len Feinberg and a second by Sally Alercia to adjourn the meeting at 8:15 pm. A vote was taken the motion passed.

The next meeting will be on Thursday, February 1st, 2018 at Nicolosi's Pizza.
The minutes have been respectfully submitted by Lorraine Lodics, Secretary, Easton Area Corvette Club.
